A SPECIAL DAY

Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni—two special stars on a very special day. See page 14.

"SEPTEMBER 30, 1955"

Richard Thomas as a sensitive teenager affected by the death of idol James Dean. See page 21.

... and still more

NEIL DIAMOND

HBO brings you another look at this international superstar's very special performance. See page 20.

WORLD TEAM TENNIS

As the season reaches a climax, HBO brings you this championship round. See page 13.

WALT DISNEY CARTOONS

One of the great Disney animated short subjects will precede each showing of The Apple Dumpling Gang. See page 12.

INTERMISSIONS

This month HBO begins a brand new series of intermission programs all about making movies and specials, about travel and personalities.

Home Box Office, HBO, Standing Room Only, On Location are trademarks and servicemarks of Home Box Office, Inc.

Silver Streak

This action-comedy moves as fast as the transcontinental luxury train hurtling across the countryside from Los Angeles to Chicago. Gene Wilder, Richard Pryor and Jill Clayburgh star in this madcap mystery. There's murder, intrigue, thrills, danger—and plenty of romance aboard the Silver Streak. Directed by Arthur Hiller (Love Story). "A pretty diverting trip." (L. A. Times) Mild language. (PG-1:53) Sept. 3, 7, 11, 16, 22, 26, 30

American Graffiti

One long summer night in a small town, four high school chums get together as a group for the last time. Here's one of the most popular films of all time, filled with the fun and flavor of the '60s—the cars, the clothes, the hair, the language—plus some original footage not included in its first release. With Richard Dreyfuss, Ronny Howard, Cindy Williams and on the soundtrack, some great rock 'n' roll. Language. (PG-1:55) Sept. 1, 4, 9, 13, 19, 24, 28

The Hiding Place

Julie Harris

Arthur O'Connell

Eileen Heckart

Jeanette Clift

In the tradition of Holocaust and Anne Frank, this is the true tale of a courageous woman with ideals and love for her fellow man. Jeanette Clift plays Corrie ten Boom, who saved the lives of countless Jews in Nazi-occupied Holland. "Extraordinary . . . a rare, touching experience." (Rex Reed) Mild violence. (PG-2:26) Sept. 2, 5, 10, 14, 20

The Last Remake of Beau Geste

How could anyone, even Ann-Margret, Peter Ustinov and Terry Thomas, ever mistake Michael York and Marty Feldman for identical twins? Find out in a wacky spoof of every Foreign Legion film ever made. Mildly suggestive. (PG-1:23) Sept. 4

Chevy Chase and Friends

His name is Chevy but he became famous as a Ford—Chevy Chase from Saturday Night Live! Watch him stumble into your living room with his zany, visual humor. Catch Chevy (before he falls) and some great young comedians. Sept 2,5,8

The Harrad Experiment

The students at a very unconventional college learn the art of loving and living together on assignment from their professor, James Whitmore. With Tippi Hedren. "Nice, gentle, very nude, very clean." (L.A. Times) Nudity, mature theme. (R-1:35) September 2,11

Harrad Summer

Vacationing students return home—where their families' reactions to what they learned is sometimes surprising. Language, brief nudity. (PG-1:33) Sept. 6,11

Bobby Deerfield

Handsome, successful, rich, famous—but also brooding and hard to reach. That's Bobby Deerfield. Superstar Al Pacino is brilliant as the Grand Prix racing champ who begins to find himself only after he finds lovely Marthe Keller. Beautifully photographed on location in Europe, including a breathtaking balloon sequence. Language, partial nudity. (PG-2:04) September 5,8

MacArthur

Gregory Peck is General Douglas MacArthur—both the legend and the man. Here's a revealing portrait of the five-star general who led us to victory over Japan, the commander we turned to when Korea exploded, the man who was fired for crossing his President. Saint, sinner, hero, villain, or genius? Or was he all of these? War violence. (PG-2:08) September 1

Smokey and the Bandit

Burt Reynolds
Jackie Gleason
Sally Field

Burt Reynolds is king of the road in this all-action comedy, the second biggest draw of 1977 (after Star Wars). Macho Burt is CB's "Bandit," romancing runaway bride-to-be Sally Field when he's not racing beer across state lines. "Smokey" is played by the great one himself, Jackie Gleason, a sheriff hot on Burt's trail. Nashville's Jerry Reed sings three country/western songs. Language. (PG-1:40) Sept. 10, 14, 18, 23, 26

Handle with Care

Here's a grown-up American Graffiti with robust performances by two of its grads, Candy Clark and Paul Le Mat. A lively comedy centering around CB's influence on a small town. And the mix-ups! Not one triangle but two! With some very memorable ladies. (Watch for Ann Wedgeworth, hailed by the critics.) Named on many "Ten Best" lists. "Full of crackling energy. Should help Le Mat to the top among Hollywood's hottest young actors." (Playboy) Adult situations, language. (PG-1:36) Sept. 9, 13, 17, 20, 26, 29

On Location: George Carlin Again!

This one's a wow of a show! Humorist/comedian George Carlin, whose 1977 On Location won a National Cable Television Association award, is back by popular demand on HBO—with brand new material in a brand new show! Sights, sounds, faces, dialects—nothing escapes his comic outlook. A satirist and word-smith, Carlin's now famous "Seven-words-you-don't-say-on-TV" routine (which you'll hear again!) has made him a comic favorite. Keenly perceptive, unique, significant—are all words that apply to George. Most important, he's a very funny man! Sept. 8, 11, 19, 24, 28

Two Mules for Sister Sara

Clint Eastwood
Shirley MacLaine

When rough, tough gunslinger Clint Eastwood runs into a whiskey-swilling "nun," Shirley MacLaine, it's the greatest casting coup since Bogart and Hepburn in The African Queen. Action and western adventure are combined with comedy set in 19th century Mexico. Directed by Don Siegel (Dirty Harry). "Charming, funny, cruel, sad and occasionally quite terrifying." (N.Y. Times) Mild violence and language. (PG-1:45) Sept. 9,12,18,22,27

Jesus Christ Superstar

A spectacular adaptation of the hit Broadway rock opera and record album success, Jesus Christ Superstar has electrified audiences around the world. Filmed in the Holy Land. (G-1:48) Sept. 2,7,10,13

Black Sunday

A non-stop thriller starring Robert Shaw, Marthe Keller and the Goodyear blimp. Don't miss the terrifying finale involving 80,000 unsuspecting Superbowl fans. Violence, language. (R-2:23) Sept. 8,12,18

Cry for Me Billy

A drifter named Billy and a frightened but beautiful Indian girl clash with the U.S. Cavalry in this saga of the Old West. Nudity, violence. (R-1:33) Sept. 1,5,10,14

Ali/Spinks

The road to the Superdome

In the coming battle of New Orleans, will Muhammad Ali become the first boxer to win the title three times? Or will the young '76 Olympic gold medalist take this fight, too? You'll be in a better position to judge after this fast-moving sports special which traces their careers. Sept. 11,14,15

© 1978 Walt Disney Productions

Walt Disney The APPLE DUMPLING GANG

Walt Disney comes to HBO! Here's a lively, wholesome comedy that recaptures all the flavor of the Old West of the 1870s. A cardsharp agrees to take possession of some valuable property for a friend—and finds he has three orphans on his hands! Bill Bixby, Don Knotts, Susan Clark, Tim Conway. Preceded by a Disney cartoon. (G-1:40) Sept. 16, 20, 22, 24, 27, 30

THE DOMINO PRINCIPLE

Mysterious forces place convicted killer Gene Hackman in a web of suspense when a strange conspiracy engulfs him and his wife (Candice Bergen). Richard Widmark returns in the kind of role which made him famous. Strong support by Eli Wallach, Edward Albert and Mickey Rooney. "A lively thriller." (San Francisco Chronicle) Adult language, some brutality. (R-1:40) September 17, 21, 25, 29

World Team Tennis Championship

Every forehand, backhand, serve and volley will take on added significance as another WTT season builds to a climax. In this championship round, Boston's talented Lobsters have been picked as the early favorites. Sept. 17

March or Die

A desert action melodrama, big in scope, with the French Foreign Legion at the height of its glory. Gene Hackman is a tough, bitter American who joins the famous fighting force. Cast includes lovely Catherine Deneuve, Terence Hill, Max Von Sydow. Stirring music by Maurice Jarre (Doctor Zhivago). "Skillfully made, rip-snorting splendor." (Rex Reed) Violence. (PG-1:47) Sept. 15, 18, 21, 24, 30

A Special Day

A special duo! Marcello Mastroianni and Sophia Loren are riveting as two lonely people who find each other. Loren again plays the kind of earthy role which won her Oscar (Two Women). Mastroianni was nominated for this role, the tormented loner. On many "Ten Best" lists of 1977, "Loren so appealing, so artful, as she changes from unglamorous chattel to woman flushed with a sudden radiance." (Gene Shalit) Adult situations. (PG-1:50) September 16, 19, 24, 28

Islands in the Stream

The moving saga of a lonely man's inner struggle as he attempts to relate to his estranged sons. Based on Ernest Hemingway's last novel. George C. Scott. Mild language. (PG-1:50) Sept. 3, 6, 12, 20

Animals are Beautiful People

Sorcerer

Desperate men stake their lives on a dangerous mission in a vivid suspense melodrama from William Friedkin, director of French Connection. Roy Scheider is a mobster hauling dangerous nitro over treacherous jungle roads in South America. He's one of a quartet of outlaws hired for an "impossible" job. "Extremely good performances by Roy Scheider and Bruno Cremer." (N.Y. Times) Bloody violence. (PG-2:02) September 22, 25

Standing Room Only: Tom Jones and Tina Turner

Two of the most sensational high-energy performers in the world today in an explosive entertainment you won't soon forget. Tom Jones, the suave, sexy, writhing Welshman, truly a legend in his own time. And Tina Turner, with her revival meeting approach to life, love, movement and music. Yes, the king and queen of erotica rock appear together for the first time in their careers. This fantastic "first" teams the two most dynamic singer/entertainers in the business. Sept. 24, 28

A Piece of the Action

Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby, that super comedy pair, are back, following up their success in Uptown Saturday Night and Let's Do It Again. There's both action and comedy as the two likable crooks master the art of the rip-off as well as some community problems. Broadway's James Earl Jones is a retired cop, and Denise Nicholas is back from Let's Do It Again. Tuneful, toe-tapping score by Curtis Mayfield. "Cosby's charm is one of the screen's greatest natural resources." (Newsweek) Language. (PG-2:15) Sept. 23, 26

WITH THE SUPERNATURAL

Piper Laurie, frightening in Carrie, is terrifying as Ruby Claire. She's a tough, hard-drinking, eccentric manager of a drive-in movie near a forbidding Florida swamp. The supernatural thriller features some spooky characters. Janet Baldwin is Ruby's mute, possessed daughter; Stuart Whitman, a stalwart good guy. "Elemental disturbances equaled only by the finales of Exorcists I and II." (Soho Weekly News) Violence, gore. (R-1.25) Sept. 23, 27

Inside the NFL

HBO's exclusive look at the previous week's NFL action returns for another season. See not only who won, but also get an in-depth look at how they won. Neil Diamond

Love at the Greek

Here is one of today's most popular international superstars, absolutely at his best: in concert, as it was taped for network TV during his triumphant engagement at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles. HBO brings you another look at this very special "special"—Neil Diamond's first for American television—exactly as he performed it, uninterrupted by commercial breaks. Neil comments on his life and music, and presents many of his gold record selections. Sept. 30

Lipstick

A gorgeous cover girl runs into bad trouble from an off-beat musician. Super-model Margaux Hemingway plays a model in the glamorous world of high fashion. She and her real-life sister Mariel, 14, are on-screen sisters, too. Chris Sarandon plays the composer. Anne Bancroft is brilliant as a lawyer in courtroom scenes. Nudity, violence, language. (R-1:29) Sept. 6,10,15,19,30

I NEVER PROMISED YOU A ROSE GARDEN

A teenage schizophrenic wrestles with personal agonies in the nightmare world of a mental hospital. Kathleen Quinlan, exciting young actress (Airport '77), turns in a staggering performance as the girl beset by fantasies. Her psychiatrist: brilliant Bibi Andersson (familiar from Ingmar Bergman films). Based on the bestseller by Joanne Greenberg. "Compelling and powerful stuff, yet filled with compassion." (Hollywood Reporter) Nudity, adult language. (R-1:32) September 29

"September 30, 1955"

James Dean was headed for superstardom when he died in a car crash in September, 1955. His death shattered an entire generation, including Jimmy J., a college student in a small Arkansas town. Richard Thomas, Waltons' John-Boy, gives a highly praised, sensitive performance. Susan Tyrrell, Lisa Blount, Thomas Hulce. "A unique, wonderful movie." (Motion Picture Product Digest) Language. (PG-1:41) Sept. 30

HBO Soundtrack

To several generations of moviegoers, one name is synonymous with family entertainment: Walt Disney. From the first appearance of the spirited Mickey Mouse in the '20s, through the introduction of Minnie, Goofy and Donald Duck, to full-length features, both animated and live, audiences of all ages have responded to the magic of Walt Disney.

Young adults of today who grew up with television are equally familiar with the wonderful world of Disney—as those inimitable talents moved into the making of movies with live actors.

Here at HBO we are happy to participate in the latest move of Disney into pay television. The Apple Dumpling Gang, our first Walt Disney presentation, is just the first one of a series of great Disney movies we'll be bringing to you in the months ahead.
